

KJELL ALEKLETT

President

Association for the Study of Peak Oil & Gas

Kjell Aleklett is a Professor of Physics at Uppsala University in Sweden and Leader for the Uppsala Hydrocarbon Depletion Study Group. He holds a doctorate degree from the University of Gothenburg in Sweden. From 1977 to 1985, he worked as a post-doctoral staff scientist at the Natural Science Laboratory at Studsvik in Sweden.

In 1986, he was appointed Associate Professor at Uppsala University and later Full Professor. In 1978-79 and again in 1983, he was invited to work with Nobel Prize winner Glenn T. Seaborg at the Lawrence Berkley Laboratory at the University of California, Berkeley, California in the United States.

His interest in the global energy situation started in 1995 and has since then grown dramatically. He organized the First International Workshop on Oil Depletion in May 2002 at Uppsala University. Since 2003, he is the President of ASPO, the Association for the Study of Peak Oil & Gas (www.peakoil.net).
