

W. EDINGS THIBAULT

Vice-President

Paper & Packaging, North America

Morgan Stanley

Edings Thibault is a Vice President and has covered the North American Paper and Forest Products Industry since 2003 and the Packaging and Containers Industry since late 2001. Prior to joining the packaging team, he covered the competitive telecommunications industry. He joined Morgan Stanley in 1998.

Previously, he worked at Alex. Brown & Sons and Rothschild in their investment banking departments.

Edings graduated from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service.