

Mark Wilde

Managing Director

Deutsche Bank Securities

Mark Wilde is Deutsche Bank's senior analyst covering Paper & Forest Products sector. Over the last decade, he has been recognized as one of the sector's best stock pickers. He is a regular member of Institutional Investor's All-America Research Team and ranked #1 in the 2007 Greenwich Survey for Paper & Packaging. A July 2008 feature article by RISI, the leading worldwide consulting & publishing firm for the paper industry, identified Mark as one of the most globally influential persons in the sector - - - the only Wall Street executive on the list. At Bankers Trust (a predecessor firm), Mark also served as Director of U.S. Equity Research and was a partner. Prior to joining BT in 1988, Mark was employed as a senior economist by Wharton Econometrics (WEFA Group) in Philadelphia. Mark studied history & accounting as an undergraduate and holds a doctorate in economic history. Mark, his wife and 3 children live in Princeton, New Jersey.